

My credit card companies, my telephone companies and my department stores were the biggest telemarketing abusers in my home. Allowing them back in defeats the purpose of what this law has done to eliminate those aggravating calls. I am surprised at how well this law works. Please, don't try and fix it!